

Document Submission Disclaimer

Before uploading or granting access to any documents, please read this disclaimer carefully and acknowledge it below.

No Attorney-Client Relationship. Submitting documents or information through this site does not create an attorney-client relationship between you and Vela Wood Staley Young P.C. ("VW"). An attorney-client relationship is formed only when you and VW sign an engagement agreement. You do not have to enter an attorney-client relationship with VW to receive your complimentary HealthCheck Review ("Review").

No Legal Advice. The Review is not legal advice and does not create an attorney-client relationship between you and VW. VW will provide legal advice only after you and VW sign an engagement agreement. You agree not to rely on the Review without first obtaining legal advice from VW or another law firm.

Conflicts. VW will determine whether any conflict of interest would prevent VW from representing you in the future. If VW identifies a conflict, VW will notify you and permanently delete the documents and information you submitted. You agree that submission of documents and information through this site will not disqualify VW from representing any of its clients in any matter, including matters adverse to you.

No Privilege. Because no attorney-client relationship exists at this time, no attorney-client privilege or work-product protection applies to any documents or information you provide, or to any information VW provides in response. As a result, those protections will not shield the documents and information, or VW's Review, from discovery in litigation.

Voluntary Submission. You are providing documents voluntarily and deciding, in your own discretion, which documents to provide. VW has not required you to submit any specific documents as a condition of this Review, and you are not obligated to submit anything you consider sensitive.

Limited Purpose and Use. VW will use the documents and information you submit solely to prepare your Review and check for conflicts of interest. VW will not use these materials for any other purpose without your consent.

No Ownership or Control. VW does not take ownership, custody, or control of any documents you submit or grant access to. All documents remain your sole property. Granting VW access to a shared drive or folder does not transfer any rights in that content. VW will permanently delete your documents on request.

No Guarantee of Security. VW takes reasonable care with the information it receives, but VW makes no representation or warranty about the security of any transmission, platform, or storage method, including third-party services such as Google Drive, SharePoint or Dropbox. VW is not responsible for unauthorized access, loss, or disclosure of documents that occurs outside VW's direct control.

No Obligation to Represent. VW's provision of the Review does not obligate VW to enter into an attorney-client relationship with you. VW may decline to represent you for any reason or no reason. Providing the Review does not entitle you to legal advice, work product, or any deliverable absent a signed engagement agreement.

By checking the box below and submitting documents or granting access, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this disclaimer and agree to proceed on these terms.
